Further to our earlier conversation in respect of the SNP Party work which is ongoing, through liaison with Comms and Force Executive the following reactive press line will be used:

A Police Scotland spokesperson said: "We continue to assess a complaint of alleged financial irregularity. During this initial work further information has been received which also requires to be assessed to determine if an investigation is required."

I will keep you updated as this progresses and also share the briefing paper with you once completed.

Thanks and as ever, happy to talk through if that would assist,
