OFFICIAL

Morning,

How are you? I know S38(1)(b) has been staying connected, but I wanted to take this opportunity to formally thank you.

So, a MASSIVE thank you to you both and to your team for everything! Above and beyond helping to organise and support the event, having you guys facilitate our workshops was invaluable.

I will forever be grateful for the very personal journey all of our storytellers chose to share but having the expertise of TIE helping navigate this day, made this event a success 😊

I hope that having such a diverse group of storytellers meant that each and every young person – scrap that – every person who attended yesterday was able to identify and relate to someone. I'm sure this is something we all see so much value in.

I don't know if you have all had a chance to decompress – I know that my head is still buzzing with this event and where it can go next. We are very excited in creating an 'package' so that this day can be replicated and delivered throughout all divisions in Scotland, as a bare minimum. I love your idea of running another event in a different division to tighten up before creating this 'package'. Please trust that S38(1)(b) and I are committed and driven in keeping this momentum going. We are also very excited at the prospects of making it even bigger / longer.

I truly feel like this event has been a positive experience for all who attended and the feedback I am getting from the adults, has been both humbling and inspiring.

I really can't thank you enough and appreciate the support you have given.

Speak soon

You don't often get email from S38(1)(b)@tie.scot. Learn why this is important

CAUTION: This email originated from outside the organization. Do not click links or open attachments unless you recognize the sender and know the content is safe.

Also - if you are able to send through the scenario cards (and answers?) for the hate crime workshop, I'll make sure that the team are briefed to be able to facilitate discussion effectively.

Best wishes,

Hi everyone,

Draft agenda attached. I hope it makes sense. I've decided to get involved in the storytelling too because there was an odd number which would mean a group would be waiting around while the second group heard from Laura.

Let me know if this works.

Thanks and looking forward to it,
